Those policy and procedures violations are set forth as follows.

 Harassment
- 2. Sections 3/01/030.05-General behavior, 3-01/030.06-Inappropriate Conduct

Sergeant Oscar Martinez, Sergeant Michelle Emeneger, and Lieutenant Tri T. Hoang. exercised his right of appeal and hearings before your hearing officer were conducted in person on January 27, 2020, January 28, 2020, and in virtual format on February 24, and February 26, 2021. The department was represented by Ms. Armineh Megrabyan, Esq., and Mr. Mendoza was represented by Ms. Sherry Lawrence, Esq.

As defined by the Civil Service Commission, the issues for our consideration are as follows

- Are the allegations contained in the department's letter of July 31, 2018, true?
- If any or all are true, is the discipline appropriate?

III. BASIS FOR THE DISCHARGE

There were two separate incidents that form the factual basis of the complaint by Deputy when she arrived at the MCJ gymnasium to work out on February 27, 2017, Patrick Mendoza According to was already present and when he saw the commented, "Hey Wow, your ass looks great in those pants " She ignored his comment and began her exercise session. While working out with her headphones on and listening to music, she observed that he was speaking to her. When she removed the headphones, Mendoza said to her, "Hey 'd take you in here, in the saima, and fuck you in your ass." Shortly thereafter. Mendoza pulled down his basketball shorts below his genitals and exposed himself to the She immediately turned away and told Mendoza she did not want to see that stated the situation made her uncomfortable. She was shocked and offended and considered filing a complaint. However, she was hesitant to do so for fear of being called a "rat" She confided the facts of the incident to a co-worker, Deputy and they discussed her options of reporting the incident. The second incident occurred on March 4, 2017, Deputies. and Mendoza were all assigned to the 3000 Control Booth on the PM shift. Mendoza himself, brought up the MCJ gym incident and to tell them what happened. When she declined, Mendoza then stated, "I showed her my nuts." what had happened and stated he would discuss the matter with Mendoza However, when she was approached by other deputies a day or two later and was asked what had happened at the gym, it seemed that he was spreading false rumors about her, and she then decided to report the matter to Sergeant Lisa Diaz. Mendoza was interviewed on January 31, 2018, and he denied going to the MCJ gym on February 27, 2017, certain that he had been there on March 4, 2017. He also denied the statements that he was alleged to have made in the MCJ gym and in the control room and that he had exposed himself. His last two performance DISCUSSION, FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND RECOMMENDATION - 2 evaluations were described as both and and and and and his history of employment shows no prior discipline.

IV. OPENING STATEMENTS

By the Department:

ı

Deputy Mendoza has consistently failed to take responsibility for his actions. He even manages to shift the blame upon the victim, Deputy by accusing her of flirting with him in the gym. He also denied showing her his genitals claiming that he was only showing off his abs. During the investigation by Internal Affairs, he continued to make false statements regarding his conduct at the gym and the evidence will show that Deputy Mendoza is unfit to serve as a member of the Sheriff's Department and the discharge should be sustained.

By the Appellant:

Deputy Mendoza has no history of ever behaving in this manner and there have never been any prior complaints filed against him. Deputy has a reputation for promiscuity in the department and she was embarrassed by people talking about her and wanted to turn her reputation around. There were no witnesses to the alleged incident in the gym and this is a matter of her word against his.

V. WITNESS TESTIMONY

By the Department:

The department's first witness was former Chief Joanne "Jodi" Sharp. Now retired. Ms. Sharp was Chief of the Custody Division during her employment with the department and oversaw inmate reception at the Men's Central Jail. During her time as chief, she oversaw numerous disciplinary cases, including sexual harassment cases and served as the decision-maker on the Mendoza matter. In arriving at the decision to terminate his employment with the department, she considered the totality of the facts of the case. She reviewed the interviews of Mendoza. listened to the audios, examined his performance evaluations and anything else that was pertinent.

was also interviewed, and she was hesitant about testifying against Mendoza. She had no biases against him although she believed that Mendoza was spreading rumors about her. During her interview, statements were consistent, and she was credible. Her supervisors considered her to be a hard worker and contrary to Appellant's allegations, she did not have a reputation for being promiscuous.

All the witnesses who were interviewed stated that when Mendoza entered the control room, he made mention of the gym incident and they heard him say "nuts." In contrast, Mendoza claims that howed him her DISCUSSION, FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND RECOMMENDATION - 3 abs and he, in turn, showed her his gut. He also claimed that she had been flirting with him. The other witnesses that were in the control room at the time were consistent in their statements and were credible. Shortly after the incident, called her friend, Deputy to consult with him about the incident. Her complaint, which was made soon after the occurrence, substantiates its truth. In conclusion, Mendoza created a hostile work environment, his timeline was inconsistent with the facts, and he left his post to go to the gym to work out—a violation of policy.

In reaching her decision to recommend the discharge, she considered the following circumstances.

- 1. He was untruthful about the incident
- 2. He showed poor judgment
- 3. He exposed himself to her.
- 4. He left his post.

Next to be called was Investigator Delicia Hernandez. In 2018, she was employed as an investigator in the Internal Affairs Unit and has investigated over thirty cases of possible violations of the department's Policy of Equality After completing her investigation, she concluded that both Research and the witnesses were credible

Deputy testified that he knows Deputy and considers her to be a friend. Immediately after the gym incident, called him and told him what had happened. She didn't know whether she should report it and she was in shock and disbelief. A few days later, while they were all in the Control Room, Mendoza stated that he "showed his nuts" to the gym.

On cross-examination, the witness conceded that he did not recall Mendoza saying that he exposed himself in the gym and it did not appear to him that was concerned that Mendoza would be spreading rumors about her.

Deputy recalled that in March 2017, he, Mendoza, and were all working in the control room. None of them appeared to be uncomfortable but he did hear Mendoza make a comment about "nuts" later told him she felt uncomfortable and embarrassed by his comments and wanted it to stop. He spoke with Mendoza about it later that day and Mendoza appeared shocked because he claimed that she had flirted with him.

When questioned on cross-examination he acknowledged that he and Mendoza were friends and occasionally socialized outside of work. He has never known Mendoza to engage in any form of sexual misconduct.

The Department rested:

By the Appellant:

Kaeylyn Phillips, a free-lance producer testified on behalf of Mendoza, describing him as a man with a strong DISCUSSION, FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND RECOMMENDATION. - 4 work ethic. He has worked security on tv shows and is always respectful and polite.

Randall Thoma, a deputy sheriff with the department, has known Mendoza since 2012, both having worked at MLK hospital. He has never heard any complaints from women about him and knows him to be a man of good character.

is the owner of a security company and has employed Mr. Mendoza to work for him. He is always polite and very reliable. He has never known him to be inappropriate with anyone and is always respectful.

Deputy Kristina Marie Shultz has known Mendoza since 2015, and describes him as very polite, a hard worker and never dishonest. She believes he would never engage in misconduct with a woman. Deputy however has had photos taken of her in bathing suits and workout clothes although she doesn't know her to be dishonest

Deputy Michael Coberg knows Mendoza and had warned him to stay away from deputy as far back as 2016, because she was dating other deputies and could be a "drama."

Mendoza had raised funds for him after he had suffered injuries in a motorcycle accident, and he has always been treated with great respect by Mendoza. He doesn't believe the allegations against him

Deputy Steven Goodwin first met Mendoza at church, and both played in the church band. A friend showed him a video of at a hotel during the Baker to Vegas Run. She and another female were dressed in bikinis and were shaking their butts. He doesn't believe that Patrick would do anything mappropriate with a woman.

Sergeant Michael P. Larson has known Mendoza for over twenty years. He first met him at church, and they became friends. He mentored Mendoza and encouraged him to become a deputy sheriff. He is familiar with the allegations, and they do not comport with what he knows about Mendoza. He also knows Deputies and Alerich and does not doubt their honesty and veracity.

Deputy Osvaldo Enriquez considers Mendoza to be a hard worker who would never be inappropriate with women. He also knows who had some 'issues" with a drill instructor. There were rumors about her having posted videos on social media. She had mentioned to him that she was dating several deputies all at the same time.

Deputy Manual Enriquez has known Mendoza for over five years and considers him a hard worker. He knows the allegations but does not believe they comport with the character of Patrick Mendoza. He believes that is dishonest because she asked someone to sign her in on the time sheet, but she never came to work

Sergeant Funches had a discussion with a larger of his office about her dating a subordinate employee and not reporting it as is required by policy. During that meeting she became explosive and yelled at the sergeant. This DISCUSSION, FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND RECOMMENDATION. - 5 caused him to write a disciplinary memo about her.

Patrick Mendoza testified in his own behalf. He has been with the department as a deputy since 2015.

Following his graduation from the academy, he was assigned to Men's Central Jail as a custody training officer

On February 27, 2017, he was working a double shift from 6:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. and he also worked a double shift on March 4, 2017. Mendoza states that on March 4, 2017, he went to the gym to work out thirty minutes before the end of his shift and admits that he was paid for that thirty minutes of his time was at the gym, and she was training for the Baker to Vegas run. She lifted her shirt to show her abs and he complemented her He thought it would be funny to show her his abs, so he lifted his shirt only to reveal that he had a gut. He denies that he exposed his genitals to her and denies ever telling her that he would like to "fuck her in the ass in the sauna."

Later that day in the control booth, according to Mendoza, announced in the presence of the others that he had "flashed" her, so he jokingly agreed but he didn't think anyone believed that he had exposed himself to her and he denies that he was spreading rumors about her.

On cross-examination, Mendoza freely acknowledged that he had left his post thirty minutes before the end of his shift in order to work out at the gym and he was paid his regular salary for that time. He understands that this might constitute time fraud. He also admits to having sent text messages to other deputies (Dept exhibit 41) inviting them to join him at a "tittle club," also known as a Gentlemen's Club where topless women parade around.

VI. CLOSING STATEMENTS

By the Department:

Petitioner has a history of dishonesty and poor judgment. He has admitted to engaging in timecard fraud on the day he went to the gym and had the incident with Deputy. He left his post for thirty minutes to exercise and later put on his time sheet that he had been working for that same thirty minutes.

There is some disagreement as to the date of the occurrence of the incident in question. Ms believes it occurred on February 27th and Mr. Mendoza claims he was at the gym on March 4, 2017. DISCUSSION, FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND RECOMMENDATION - 6

With respect to the gym incident, although and Mendoza were at the gym alone, the testimony of I 2 Deputies is essential in determining what happened there and in the control room. and We have Deputy contacting Deputy immediately after the gym incident to seek his advice 3 and there is also the control room incident where Deputy testified to hearing Mendoza state that he showed 4 5 his "nuts" at the gym. On the other hand, the Petitioner is not credible. He has admitted to having engaged in time fraud and even admits to having exposed his "gut" to the gym. Yet maintains that Mendoza 6 7 said "nuts" and not "gut." 8 Mendoza has a history of treating women disrespectfully 9 He frequents gentlemen's clubs where the women 10 who are employed there are degraded and objectified. 11 Initially, Deputy was not going to report the incident and hoped that it would go away. She was 12 concerned that she would be considered a "rat" if she did report it. However, Mendoza would not keep quiet about it and began telling others about the incident. It got to the point where the felt she had no other choice because her 13 14 reputation with her co-workers was being sullied Mr. Mendoza has demonstrated a blatant disregard for those laws forbidding sexual harassment. He created 15 a hostile work environment for Deputy falsified his timecard and made false statements to the investigators 16 during his interviews. The charges justify his discharge from the department 17 18 By the Appellant: 19 Credibility is the central issue here. We have two radically different accounts of what took place at the 20 Men's Central Gym Deputy Mendoza has never wavered in his account of what took place when he saw Deputy at the gym. On the other hand, Deputy has given a different version of events to everyone she has 21 22 spoken to. When they were all in the control room, announced to all those present that Mendoza had 'flashed" 23 24 her in the gym. Mendoza assumed she was joking and so he went along with the joke and responded by saying 25 "yeah. I flashed her" Mendoza also maintains that he never discussed the matter afterward with anyone other than 26 who cautioned him to not bring it up again 27 gave a quite different account to the investigators of what had been said in the booth. She told them that Mendoza repeatedly urged her to tell the others what had happened at the gym. She eventually told 28 DISCUSSION, FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND RECOMMENDATION - 7 them that "Mendoza thought it would be cool if he showed me his dick and balls." However, when interviewed by Lieutenant Haynes, she told him that Mendoza announced that he had shown her his "nuts."

Throughout her testimony, Deputy has shown herself to be quick-tempered, sarcastic, and unable to tolerate the slightest criticism. She testified under oath that no supervisor ever told her that it was inappropriate for her to date a subordinate employee without first reporting it. Sergeant Joseph Funches, however, testified that he spoke to her about exactly that. When he asked whether she had been dating someone within her chain of command without first reporting it, she flew into a rage, yelled at him, refused to answer his questions and slammed the door

Although she was aware that the instant hearing was to begin on January 27, 2020, she nonetheless went to Hawaii on those dates. She also did not show up or call in for a shift she was assigned to, and she maintains that she wasn't aware that someone had signed the In-Service on her behalf.

Deputy conduct in this matter clearly demonstrates both dishonesty and a willingness to jeopardize others to protect herself. There were nine witnesses that vouched for Deputy Mendoza's good character but not a single witness said the same about Deputy.

The department bears the burden of proving its case by a preponderance of the evidence and when the evidence is viewed in its totality, it is abundantly clear that the department has failed to meet its burden. Deputy inability to take responsibility for her own actions has led to Deputy Mendoza losing his career, his home, his retirement and his reputation. The discharge is invalid, and he respectfully requests that the discipline be rescinded and that he be restored to full duty.

VII. DISCUSSION

In determining the truth of the matter, as in so many similar cases, we are faced with the problematic issue of one person's word against that of another person. The incident in question occurred at a gym that was devoid of any people other than the complainant, Ms. and and the Appellant, Mr. Mendoza. Ordinarily, we would have to rely solely on the apparent credibility, or lack thereof, of the parties. But in this case, we are aided by the credible testimony of Deputies and both of whom were in the control room when Deputy Mendoza egged. Deputy to tell them what happened at the gym. When she finally told them that he had flashed her, he responded by candidly admitting that he had flashed her and showed her his nuts. He later said that he was only joking when he made that statement.

Deputy testified with some discomfort (no doubt unwilling to cause harm to his friend Mendoza) that he heard Mendoza utter the word "nuts," while they were in the control room and Deputy testified that immediately after the incident. Called him to relate what had happened in the gym and asked him for guidance. She was in a state of shock and disbelief. Later, when they were all together in the control room, Mendoza shamelessly announced to all that he "had shown her his nuts." These two men are seasoned deputies who understand the gravity and possible criminal implications of performing such an indecent act and would not have testified, under oath, against Mr. Mendoza, a friend and co-worker, had it not been true. There was no indication of possible bias in their testimony, and they appeared to be quite credible. Furthermore, the fact of Deputy immediately discussing it with after leaving the gym lends even more credibility to its occurrence due to its spontaneity.

Much has been made and said of Deputy alleged promiscuity and short-temperedness in an effort to discredit her testimony. Videos of her dressed in a bikini at a swimming pool at a Las Vegas hotel and shaking her behind in the presence of a mixed group of people were introduced by the Appellant to support this claim of promiscuity. Her short-tempered meeting with a sergeant concerning her dating practices was also introduced into evidence for reasons that are unclear. But these allegations only serve to prove that a) she is not very modest and b) that she has a short fuse. It certainly doesn t prove that she was untruthful about the gym incident with Mendoza or that she is promiscuous.

During his time in the witness chair, Deputy Mendoza admitted to having shortcomings. He was frank about He also admitted to having attended gentlemen's clubs. (or, as he calls them "tittle" clubs) a few times a year. His many witnesses (ter altogether) were all character witnesses who spoke very highly of him and were certain that he would never treat women in such an impolite and indecent manner. But the fact remains that they were not in the control room like and to overhear Mendoza's crude comments. As to the charge that he left his post, Mr. Mendoza admitted to that during his testimony.

Mr Mendoza testified that because of these allegations he has lost his job and his house, and he and his family must now live with parents. He has managed to get a few jobs working security, but it is not enough to cover his expenses.

There is no doubt that this entire experience has been very painful and difficult for him, but it is an experience of his own making, and he must now suffer the consequences of his misconduct.

DISCUSSION, FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND RECOMMENDATION - 9

VIII. ARE THE ALLEGATIONS TRUE?

The evidence supporting the allegations against the Appellant is very damning. Deputy was very straightforward in giving her account of the events at the gym. Although she may have been confused as to the correct date of the occurrence and the exact wording that Mendoza used, (did he refer to her buttocks as "butt" or "ass") is of no importance relative to what had taken place there. She is very credible in recounting how he told her that he "would like to take her in the sauna and fuck her in the ass." Moreover, we have the supporting, swom testimony of Deputies and who overheard Mendoza's admission that he flashed in the gym. There can be no doubt that the allegations are true, and the department has proved its case by a preponderance of the evidence.

IX. IF ANY OR ALL ARE TRUE, IS THE DISCIPLINE APPROPRIATE?

The county policy of progressive discipline requires that we consider any history of discipline with respect to the Appellant in sustaining or modifying the penalty. An examination of Mr. Mendoza's file indicates that he has performed well on his job and there are no adverse comments, therefore, the present allegations of misconduct would be his first

The purpose of the policy is for it to serve as a remedial learning tool to correct inappropriate behavior. However, there are some acts of misconduct that are so egregious that they do not lend themselves to remediation. Acts that border on the criminality or are criminal in nature fall into that category and the proven allegations of this case, such as the exposure of male genitals to an indisposed female, preclude any consideration of a reduction in the penalty of a discharge. Acts of sexual hostility, inappropriate sexual conduct and sexual exhibition are far outside the scope of the policy of progressive discipline and are not capable of mitigation. I, therefore, find that the discharge of Patrick Mendoza from his position as deputy sheriff is appropriate and should be sustained.

X. FINDINGS OF FACT

Having considered all of the evidence, I make the following findings of fact:

- On February 27, 2017, or March 4th and/or March 4, 2017, the Appellant, Patrick Mendoza was employed as a deputy sheriff with Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department.
- On or about February 27th or March 4, 2017, the Appellant who was assigned to the Men's Central Jail, left his post thirty minutes early to work out in the MCJ gym.
- Appellant was compensated with his regular pay for his thirty-minute absence from duty
 DISCUSSION, FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND RECOMMENDATION 10

DISCUSSION, FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND RECOMMENDATION - 11

Based upon the foregoing facts, I make the following conclusions of law:

- The allegation that the Appellant was in violation of the Department's Manual of Policy and Procedures Sections 3-01/121.30-Policy of Equality, Inappropriate Conduct Toward Others, 3-01/121.15-Sexual Harassment is found to be true.
- The allegation that the Appellant was in violation of the Department's Manual of Policy and Procedures Sections 3-01/030 05-General Behavior, 3-01/030 06-Inappropriate Conduct is found to be true
- The allegation that the Appellant was in violation of the Department's Manual of Policy and Procedures Section 3-01/040.70, Dishonesty False statements, 3-01/040.75 Making False Statements is found to be true.
- 4 The allegation that the Appellant was in violation of the Department's Manual of Policy and procedures Section 3-01/030 10-Obedience to Laws, regulations and orders is found to be true.

XII. RECOMMENDATION

It is unfortunate that the Appellant continues to refuse to accept blame for his shameful comments and actions even at this late stage. Instead, he has chosen to counterattack by impugning the reputation of the victim.

Deputy with claims that because she wears a bikini and shakes her behind at swimming pool parties, we must assume that she is promiscuous and is untruthful. That is an absurdity and only serves to justify the discharge. In conclusion, Patrick Mendoza has brought shame and disgrace upon himself and is unfit to serve as a deputy sheriff in this department. I, therefore, respectfully recommend that this honorable body adopt the recommendation of your hearing officer and sustain the discharge.
